

Copy
To Cromar Mary.

May 9. 1840

Queen's Palace May 9. 1840

Copy

My Dearest Mary,

I return you many thanks for your kind letter, from which I am glad to learn that dear Amelia is at least not worse than I left Windsor, notwithstanding the cold from which she actually suffers.

Mr Henry Hallford's intention of going to see her this evening is an additional proof of his attention.

The Queen desires me to say that she will write to you tomorrow.

Believe me to be

(Signed) George

