

June 1 1810

Friday Night

My dear Papa I am happy to have to say that since I wrote this evening Amelia has taken some medicine both & thought it must make against her yet it remained on her stomach - before that the stomach was much disordered but after being well relieved by surgery Amelia has been better able to take what nourishment has been offered. The pain in the head as well as side has been there ever since I was of the day, but for all that Amelia has not been happy & she wished to keep it off till the last summer & so she was rather faint.

at different times this evening that was another reason why he proposed putting it off till to-morrow — I rejoice to find that Ernest keeps free from fear I pray God it may be in your power to send us a good account to-morrow
 I remain your faithful & affec<sup>ed</sup>
 Mother

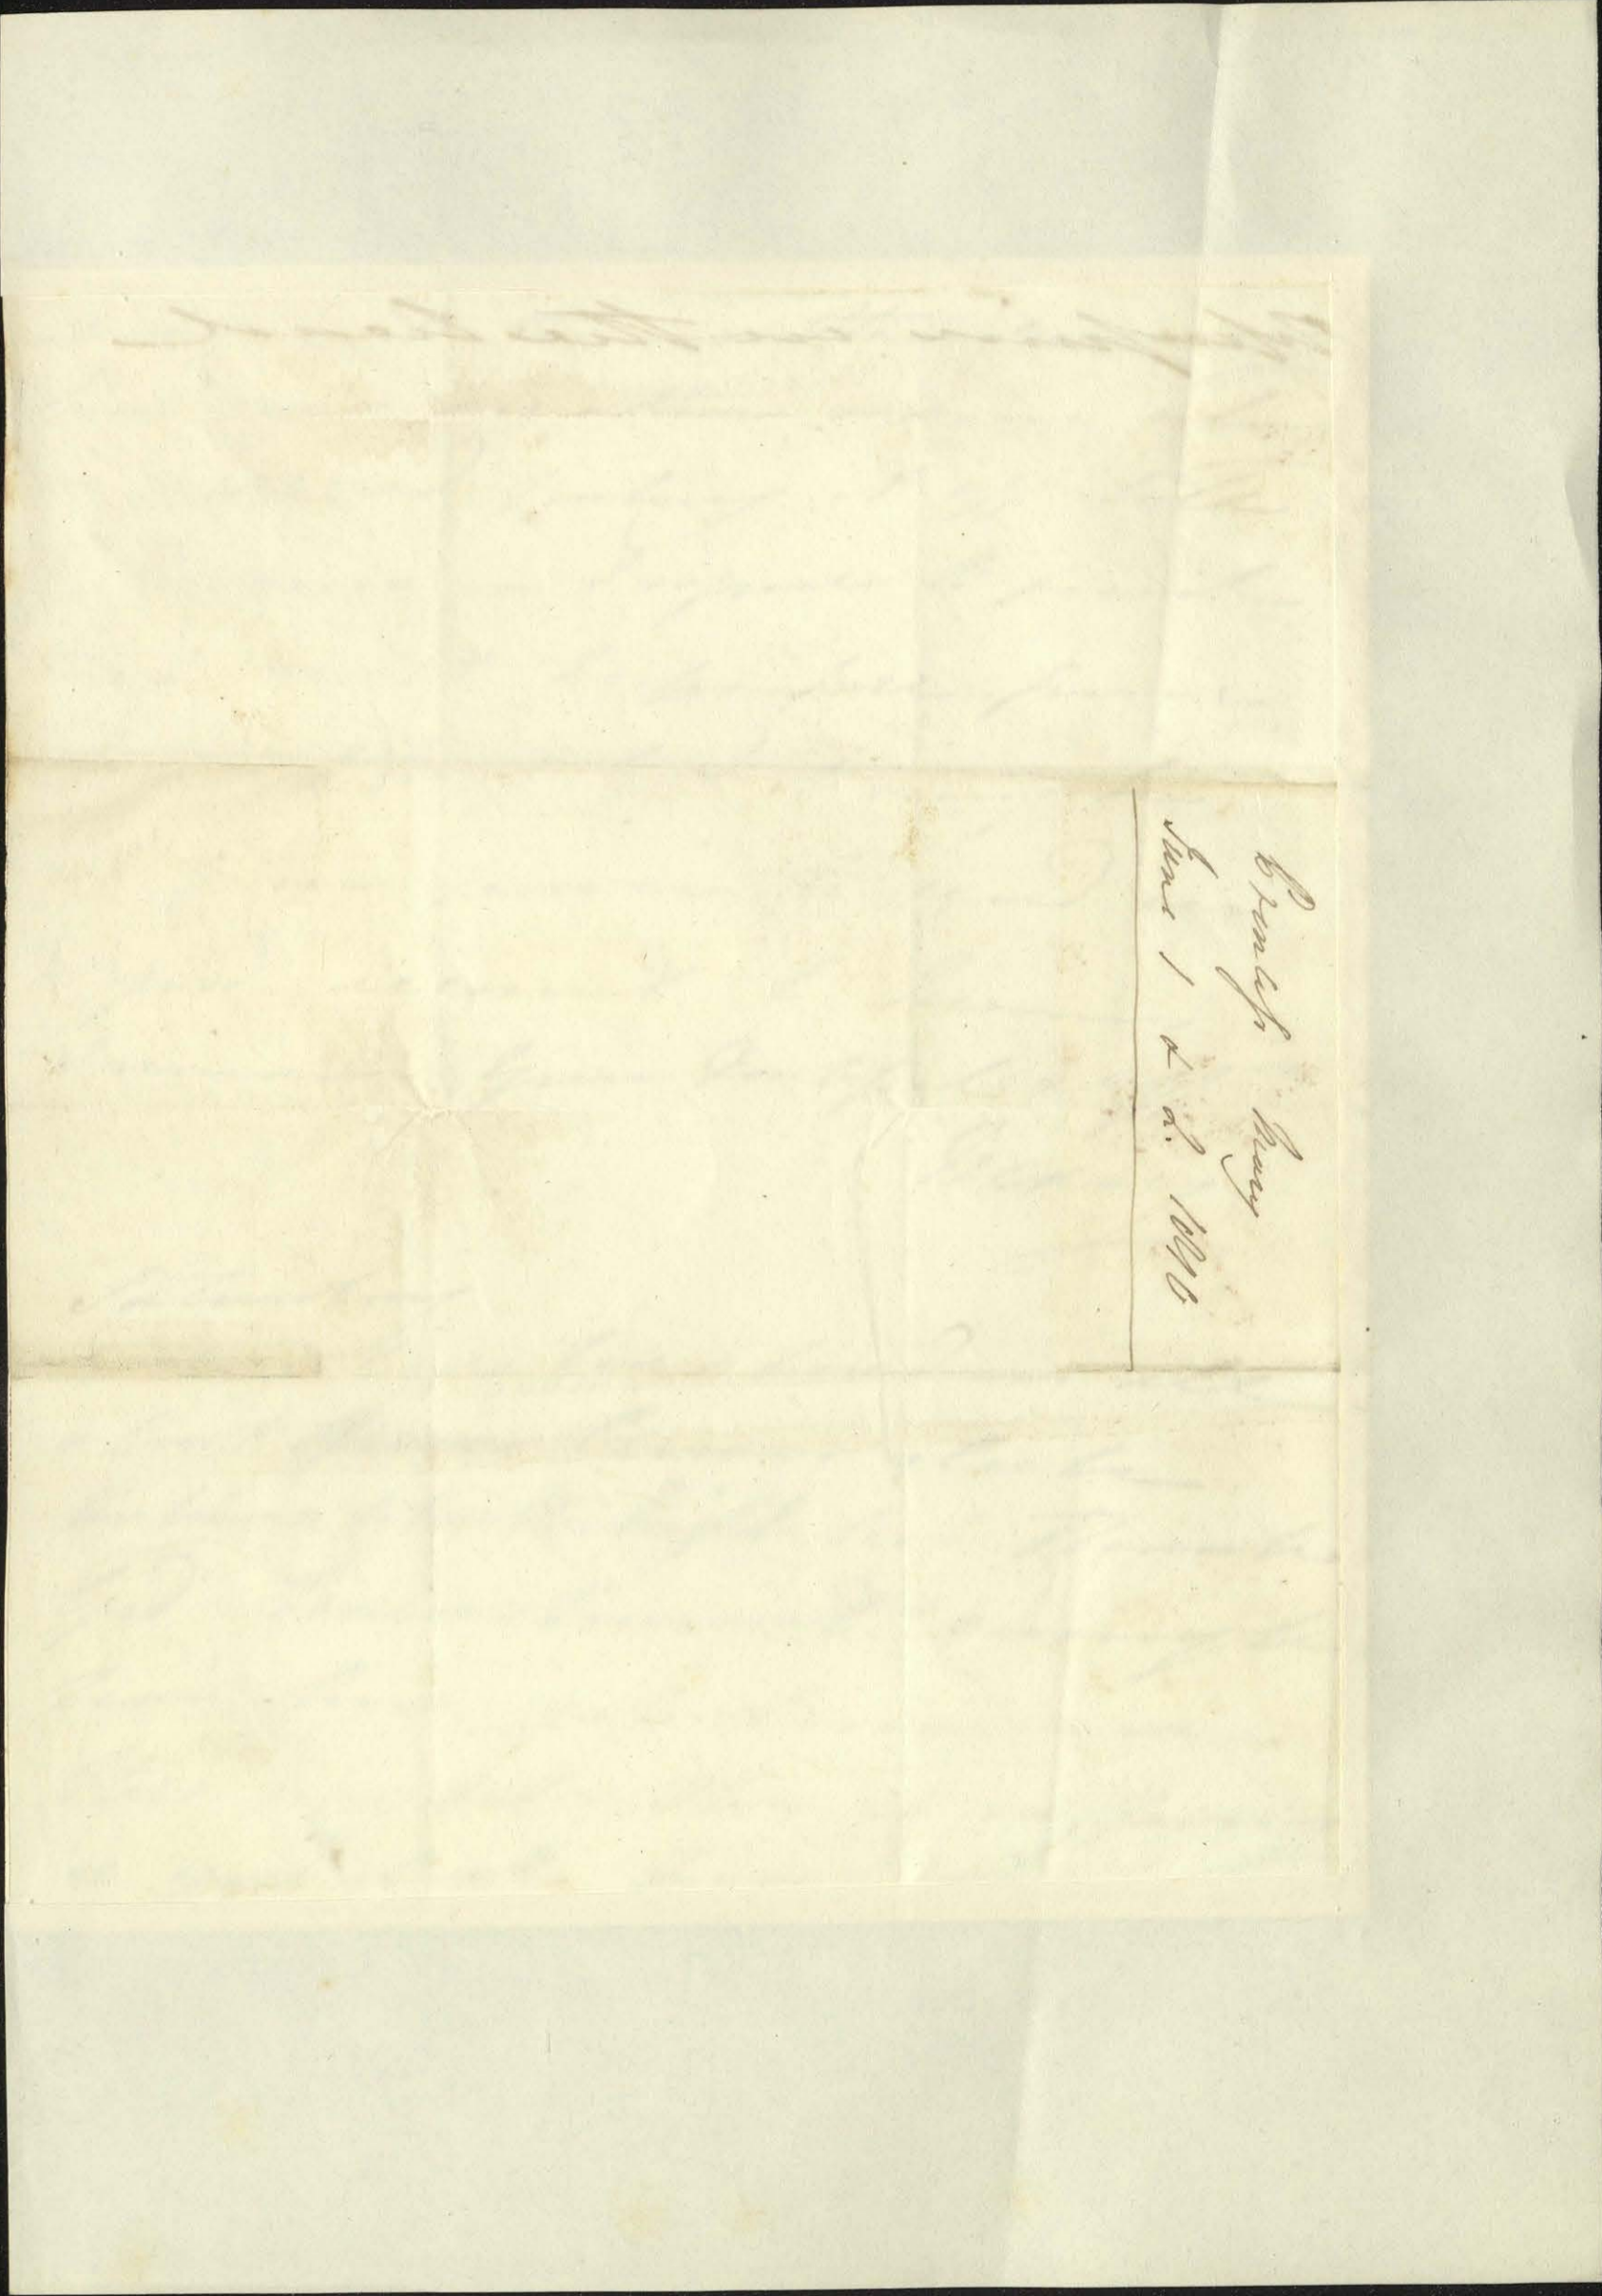

Saturday

Amelia has had in all about four hours sleep for a terrible night but thank God Amendment enough was here yet done in the night — She is suffering a good deal from the

June 1 1810

Observation on the head

[Faint handwritten text on the left edge of the page]

Princess Mary
June 1 & 2. 1815