Nov. 2.

Death of Amelia

My dear Mrs Adams I must write you one line before I go to bed to beg to say how much I ever wish to see you before I left the house to day, but alas at last the hour was more unexpected than I had any idea of being & though Mr & Mrs Henry and Pauline told me it would be over soon it did not come into my head I should have gone off so immediately - after such an illness & so much suffering we must thank God for such a recovery in this world & I trust in whereby receiving their names, can we can certainly purchase It all appears a business & I can hardly believe that what has taken up all my thoughts all my anxious care for the last 17 months is all ~~now~~ ~~gone~~ never to return again I am wonderfully well considering every body all kinds of Sir Henry will tell you I really am not all what he says unless about me I must You really & long to see You express & never hear can

 for see
 but
 see
 was
 see
 & the
 you
 my

I can thank you but enough for all your kindness to me ever since my birth
 since you have been at Windsor - Remember me
 most kindly to your Williams who I feel you must surely see every thing kind & affe to Poynd & every one who I see you will take care of & write me a line to my love you all do & especially to your love much I feel obliged to see for all your personal attention to your account till the end I hope she will not be ill in any of your - don't forget to tell her dear old Brabant how much I put all this attention which I need people to say something and from me to all and forgetting her and

Wolfe
love to lady (and)
Charles
as to Sir Henry & Dr. Wallis I have never seen I believe & love them & very believe I think Pope was there to it
