

E. of Eymont
Turnham Green July 8.th
P.M. 1765

148

Sire

I am but this moment returned from Town, having waited in hopes of seeing Mr. Oswald, & Mr. Elliot in obedience to your Majestys Commands. They were both in the Country, but expected as I understood in Town by Dinner, tho' neither of them came to their Houses at least before 5 o'clock this Evening. Being informed that Mr. Oswald will certainly lie at his House at Wandsworth this Night, I have wrote to desire him to call ~~here~~ to morrow morning upon me here by 10 in a forenoon, and I think I shall not fail to see Mr. Elliot to morrow also.

Mr. Yorke about 2^o Clock sent me the enclosed letter, which I humbly beg may be returned to me when I have the Honour to see your Majesty.

If your Majesty will be pleased to signifie your Commands by the Bearer of this Letter, whether I should attend yr Majesty this Evening, and at what Hour, I shall punctually obey; begging Leave in the mean Time to renew the strongest Assurances of that Respect, & humble Affection with I am and shall continue ever to be

Sire

Turnham Green. 8th July 1765
10 min. past 6. p. m.

Your Majestys
most dutifull & Devoted
Subject and Servant
Eymont

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]