

H. H. to Duke of Gloucester

Nov. 27 & 28 1765

15803

S. Wm. My Mother dropt to me last night an idea as if I had sent through You a message to Mr. Charles to y. following effect, y. as Mr. Ch. had complain'd to my Mother of Henry's excuse his taking any farther trouble, y. Mr. Ch. should attend Henry, now as this is quite without foundation I expect y. will clear up this affair, I recollect very well y. coming to me from Henry in y. summer with his proposal of having Lord M. Ch. being with poor Frederick at Lexington to y. of Saval absent for his health, I agreed to it, but ever since Mr. Ch. one way or other, I am y. more hurt at this as I appear by it as not shewing y. Duty I ought where I have ever attempted not to fail, I repeat it again it is incumbent on y. to see this affair behind its true light, for nothing could hurt me more if I should <sup>have</sup> been ~~mistaken~~, not only mistaken, but made <sup>George</sup> a messenger. I need doubt

Lus. 4.

Nov. 27. 1765

(which is return)

D. W. M<sup>r</sup> Ch. letter exculpates G. from any thing with regard to him; but G. certainly ought to <sup>get on paper</sup> ~~from M<sup>r</sup> L~~ ~~of what M<sup>r</sup> L says~~ ~~G.~~ from his concerning Dore; that once clearly understood it is neither <sup>of consequence to G.</sup> ~~his~~ ~~fact~~ ~~his~~ whether G. mistake ~~is~~ M<sup>r</sup> L, or M<sup>r</sup> Ch.
if G. have a copy of G. letter to G. letter payed is one.

Lus. 4.

Nov. 28. 1765.