I am extremely grieved at being obliged to take upon the melancholy office of notifying to You the death of poor brother Edward, Captain Woodley arrived on Sunday with the unhappy account of his having expired on Thursday the 7th of a malignant fever at Genoa which first seized him on the 2<sup>d</sup> & obliged him to land there as he was sailing in a Felucca from Antibes to Genoa. I am glad at <sup>that his death is owing</sup> to having overfatigued himself in the <sup>last voyage</sup> the same time to be a blessed relief that my Mother & all the Family continue well. Louise has had great benefit from drinking the Islington Water.

Dear Sir

I am extremely obliged to you for the trouble you have taken in writing to me for the purpose of settling the account of my salary for the year 1787. I have the pleasure to find that you have been so good as to pay me the sum of £1000. I am very sensible of your goodness and shall be ever ready to do you any service
 in my power.
 I am, Sir, your
 Obedient Servant
 J. G.
