Windsor Dec. 11th 1801.

My Dear Brother

The affection I have ever had for you cannot but make me receive any intimation of your wishes to their advantage, as such, I shall certainly bear in my mind the application you have this day made to me, though <sup>judging for the present</sup> it must be left to my consideration <sup>when I shall</sup> ~~take any resolution upon it, or~~ <sup>at</sup> ~~what time I will put it into execution, having you seen~~
~~why I do not choose to do it at this present moment.~~
You may <sup>never</sup> believe that I shall ever remain

My Dear Brother
Your most affectionate brother
