

Rev. Jas. Hook (aft. Dean of Worcester.)

19176

<sup>the</sup> some nominal office in the new household of the R. I mean really nominal, and of course without emolument or pension right not for example after the Office of Private Chaplain might be given to me in addition the title of Secretary for Foreign Literature or Secretary in the Literary Department or any thing of the sort that you better judgment may suggest - I wish to be identified with the arrangements of the Royal Highness's Establishments but not to interfere where I know so much difficulty in selection must exist. - Pray pardon this and transmit it your friend for me.

I have the honor to be Dear truly Yrs
attached friend
Hook

I have never heard from Mr Percival about the Irish Paper. How you?

J. Hook

July 5. 1812.