

Osborne Markham to H. Le Fanu

19600-01

Private

Barrack Office

May 1. 1812

Dear Sir

Your letter arrived the day after I left the Office for Yorkshire, and was not forwarded to me - I must have I acknowledge it returning the enclosure.
The Debate of tonight will determine whether Barracks are to be built at Bristol - I hope they are ordered as Barrack Master

H. Le Fanu Esq

By the Secretary

10-00000

with to appointed until the Buildings are reported ready to be received by the Department from the Contractor who has finished them. It you is therefore the earliest period to be looked for for this purpose. On a former occasion I signified my wishes to accommodate you by a removal when practicable. but it is fair to mention that although removals are by our Constitution left to the discretion of the Board local circumstances, ^{frequently} induce the Profury to make such a request to us so cannot be considered

Osborne Markham to H. Le Fanu

19601

is a life left than a command. Subject to the circumstances the Board will no doubt attend to you wishes the a fair opportunity of showing you should offer to some remark from Government to yourself the thing -

Yours ever very faithfully yours

[Signature]

Mr. Markham's letter to H. Lefson B. M.
1. May 1872

1872