Sir

I'm only doing Justice, when you suppose me anxious to contradict and correct any false statement of words used by me, when such statement may prove injurious to the Character of an Individual. This feeling has already prompted me to write to the Editor of the Morning Chronicle - desiring him to substitute, in the last sentence of the Report of my Speech given in his Paper of to-day - the words gaveston and Spenser for

for "Garnister" and "Head Sheriff."

I now submit for your satisfaction (at the bottom of this sheet) the whole of that sentence, according to my best recollection of what it was; and thru your great liberty to insert in the newspapers, or otherwise to make public in whatever way you may think fit.

I am the Honourable Secy,
Sir.

Your obedient Humble servant

J. M. Mackenzie

The Rt Honble

Col. Mackenzie & Co. Secy.

The sentence referred to above —

"I had rather vote hundreds of thousands to a Nelson or a Wellington, than a single farthing to a Garnister or a Spenser."
