

Thursday June 26.

3 o'clock P. M.

Lord North has seen Lord Amhurst this morning, & has, in consequence of his Lordship's visit, sent to apprise Mr. Picheu of the necessity of having the army in Ireland encamped.
If the Irish want money, no way is given to them to obtain it but by calling the Parliament. All the English Funds, except the Civil List, are specifically appropriated, & can not afford them any assistance

Lord North submits to his Majesty whether it may not be proper, after the handsome offer made by the Duke of Rutland, to give him the Lieutenantancy of Shireeshire even without appropriation, & as a mark of his Majesty's approbation of the zeal his Grace has shown on the present occasion -
