

The Duke of Northumberland

Duke of Northumberland

Nov: 22^o 1792

Weyington Nov^m: 22^o 1792.

38770

Sir

On my arrival here in my way to Feltham I have received intelligence of the Death of the Rev^d: Mr^s: Vickery, as one of the divings he held / Lidford / is in the gift of H: R: H: the Prince of Wales, may I desire you to spare His Royal Highness that I shall feel myself particularly obliged to Him if He would be graciously pleas'd to present my friend the Rev^d: Mr^s: Charles Lethbridge of Lancaster to it. I am the more encouraged to make this request to H: R: H: as the diving of Lasbyles, which I had wished to procure for him is already engaged.

As I shall in all probability have left England for distant before I can receive your answer, may I beg of you to let the Duke's plea remain at Northumberland House, till the Issue of my Application. I have the pleasure to be with great regard

Sir

Your Obedient Serv^t.

Northumberland.

