

Thos. Erskine to Capt. Payne.

May 5 1794

38913

My Dear Payne.

The Baron of this is Mr Joseph Bettsworth of Portsmouth who has me so handsomely offered his property in the Isle of Wight for a camp who is particularly desirous to show personally to the Prince of Wales every sort of respect - He wishes also to accommodate you when you happen to be there in the best manner in his power
He is a very worthy & Honorable Man, & I shall feel particularly obliged by any attention you can show him

May 5th 1794

Yours most sincerely
Erskine

[Faint, illegible handwritten text on aged paper, possibly a letter or document fragment.]