My dear Mother I am commended by the Queen to return you Mr. Thomas's letter & the Queen wishes you the letter she never forgot the D^o of Leeds upon her informing her of Miss Knight's appointment which will prove to you the relief it is to the D^o's mind - I can not but give you a hint that the D^o was sorry out of thoughts this morning when I first informed her of Miss Knight's having accepted of course you will take her notice of this whatsoever farther if you can not help it - She expressed herself greatly displeas'd with Miss Knight & her whole displeasure is with her

It is therefore highly necessary we should all support Duys Knight as much as possible for very truly that which has will & honors all her real Aunts must rejoice you have got so charming a Niece about your Daughter & it really is my very self of the Queen not to consider the consequence it is to find proper people for Charlotte & it is the duty of every one under all your difficulties to come forward & assist you & Duys Knight would not have been the Queen's

I found of the land opened after all intention and the the Queen's not affair for Miss Keight & the great use the is of to be seen only look upon as and Dudman for Japan you of the ever her times in these times and and of a morning at the end I will you from what the I
expressed herself well as much in a letter she wrote to Miss Keight to day as she did the letter to you some time ago — I wish therefore you would read see a hand written by
and would just to keep her
of all your support

& that of this I does not appear satisfied to look upon it as temper & try to break the heat of it for that Miss Knight has only done her duty by her the country & all the I am glad & it is to be hoped when the Queen see her much every body approves of Miss Knight's appointment & she will make her mind up to it Hussey has passed a very unpleasant day yesterday & tonight but her whole since 8 o'clock - the Queen could no better, but she has enjoyed all day on the subject of Miss Knight
therefore looks ill &
not in good humour

and would not see Charlotte either yesterday or today The Dr of Leeds wrote a letter to Miss this morning to propose Charlotte coming this evening at the same time. I had to be excused herself as she has got a bad cold therefore wished one of our ladies to have fetch her - but the Queen said no she would not have her -
Got Miss you & thank me
Yours truly
