

Sir

I beg leave to express my most grateful Thanks for your Royal Highnesses very gracious & kind letter, & shall be highly gratified when ever your Royal Highnesses are as good as to allow me the honor of ten minutes conversation, either at Carlton or Warwick Place. My cold is so exceedingly increased since yesterday, that I fear my being able to attend Her Majesty Highnesses Prince Charles the second but I must not keep silent to reveal my being at your Royal Highness orders here or at further news on Wednesday. I am happy to say that your Royal Highness driver at today by Sir Henry Pelham's desire, & the Princess does not seem the worse for it that your Royal Highness desires but love to your Royal Highness will very thank you for your reply & that she will be very happy when you your Royal Highness can call at Warwick Place again I have the honor to remain with 49784 every sentiment of respect & gratitude

Sir

Your Royal Highness much obliged

& thank you, Sir

J. H. Leeds

Warrick House

11 May 1813

Duchess of Devon

July 22. 1813.

(Princess Charlotte)