[30 June 1813]

My Dear Papa

at the same time to send this eg. I thought you will allow me to and drop the affair here as I could not with enjoy the further view of the cause before you under the remaining portions of history eg - I have been especially distressed at what had been being innocently done the whole without an idea of its being disagreeable to you I take to the Duke of Gloucester letter to the letter that had been for some time, I will refer to something said by your wisdom, for I have have to trust but that of doing what can be most agreeable to you I do assure you the instant I was that you disapproved, I left of conversation of the evening for the sake of the 23 - I should then be convinced that had I had suspiciousness, it would have suddenly been done, from what notions can my actions show be of the nature of the interest and action, which would lead me to avoid giving in a moment to him - This is the only apology I can make, & if I do but accept it as it is offered, smile receive me with your usual kindness May it will make me happy? as least I might be so, for I must be bed with every heavy one with idea of having displeased you I have me ever

Ever truly yours
