Duke of Richmond

Whitehall. 11th May. 1749.

Dear Sir,

I am overjoy'd to hear of your perfect recovery; enclosed is a note of entertainment for your maie, & as the warrant is general the may throw her handkerif if she has one. Lord Oxford's Justice is certainly the ~~strongest~~ <sup>strongest</sup> here, & I thinke the finest, so I recommend him for your maie, & I hope you'll see him perform, that you may be an eye witness of his vigor & your maie's patience. I am

Dear W. Thomas Your most faithfull
 & obedient humble
 servant Richmond: &c.
