

Lord North

963

[5 Ap. 1770]

Lord North has the honour of informing his Majesty, that Mr Edward Ashley having made a motion for laying before the House all the Concessions, Additional Salaries & Reversionary Grants from the commencement of the present Parliament, the latter words were altered, & the words "from the commencement of his Majesty's reign" inserted in lieu thereof. Mr Phipps then moved for the order of the day, & carried his motion after some debate by 154 voices to 104.

Leaving that. $\frac{1}{2}$ after nine.
